Class Prophecy

Quite a few years had passed since the graduation of the 1951 Class. I, being unable to keep in contact with all of the class, had a strong desire to meet them.

I knew that Gladys Sue Davis, Mary Fox, and Nancy Russell were happily married because they had a triple wedding in the Bethel Hill Church, shortly after they graduated. I suddenly thought maybe if I went to Roxboro I would come upon some of my classmates and teachers.

As I got on the bus I saw that Frank Melton was the bus driver. In our conversation I found out that John Yarborough was head of the National Guard Unit and that Thomas Young had become one of Glen Thompsons' "Dixie Playboys."

When I arrived in Roxboro the first person I saw was Mr. Cushwa. After a short while of talking I learned that he had become such an excellent teacher that his teachers' salary had been increased double that which he had made and that now he, his wife, and children were not starving as once was heard because of his low income.

After he left I went in Rose's Ten-cent Store and was looking at some jewelry when a very attractive blond-headed girl stepped up beside me. Much to my surprise it was Virginia Bohannon. She told me that they were having a "Laughing Contest" at 2:30 P.M. at Bethel Hill High School and asked if I would like to go with her.

When I left the store I saw Mrs. Taylor. She was still the twelfth grade teacher and was wondering if she would ever have another class as good as teh Senior-Class of 1951.

Walking on down the street I met Louise Yarborough. She told me she had finally gotten up enough nerve to get her driver's license and wanted me to ride with her to the Circus that was a mile out of town.

We saw an acrobat there who gave an excellent performance and when we had to walk by him on our way from the Circus we saw that it was one of our classmates Carlton Gentry.

I got back just in time to meet Virginia and go with her to the "Laughing Contest." When we arrived there we saw no other than Laura Hughes, Kathryn Wilborn, and Bobby Melton among the other competitors. Mrs. Hobgood and Lester Self were judges, while Dorothy Oakley took up the money. While there we saw Florence Cole and MaryDickerson. After talking a while I found out that they had opened a dancing class at Bethel Hill and they were the teachers.

After leaving the school Virginia had two free tickets to the University of North Carolina and State basketball game. We attended. Before the game I noticed a red head and a brunette talking in the corner. They were Nancy Hall and Mrs. Pentecost. I thought they were just talking as they usually did at school but later found out that Nancy was getting a little further education and help from Mrs. Pentecost on the subject of Biology. She was going to take over Biology Class at Bethel Hill so Mrs. Pentecost could have more time for Home Economics.

As soon as the game started Berley Wade stepped in the door with a Math Book. He was planning to succeed Mr. Hopkins in that field of study and he was determined to make a good showing by studying every spare moment. He did too--at the quarters and half.

During the game I noticed a black-headed boy who was playing an excellent game. Later I saw that it was Jack Parrott. He was the star player of the University of North Carolina Team and had made the most points of the season. Over on the opposite side of the stadium I saw Mr. Sharpe who was rooting with all his might for State.

After we left the game we came by Semora and it was then I learned that Louise Zimmerman and her husband had built a nice six-room house. We decided to stop a while and pay them an unexpected visit. When we got there we found Louise reading a bed-time story to her two children.

After she had gotten them off to bed we retired to the living room to look at television. The first thing that came on was "Bo" Watts and Merritt Oakley telling of their experiences and giving people pointers on how to graduate in one week as they did at Lees McRae College.

It was getting pretty late so Virginia carried me home. I was very happy then that my desire to see my fellow class mates and teachers had been realized.
